LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

THE WITTLIFF COLLECTIONS

Texas State University, Alkek Library, 7th Floor
512-245-2313 | TheWittliffCollections.TXState.edu

This literary/photographic center inspires visitors with changing exhibitions related to Southwestern writers and photography of the Southwest and Mexico, plus readings, book signings, artist talks, and more. Seven large gallery spaces include a permanent display of costumes, props, set pieces, and other memorabilia from Lonesome Dove.

WIMBERLEY GLASS WORKS

Known worldwide for beautiful hand blown art glass and lighting pieces, visitors can watch daily demonstrations to experience first hand the unique craftsmanship of a skilled team of artisans using centuries-old techniques.

THE MEADOWS CENTER GLASS BOTTOM BOAT TOURS

201 San Marcos Springs Drive
512-245-7570 | Aquarena.TXState.edu

1,000 springs bubble to the surface and form the headwaters of the San Marcos River. Walk the Wetlands Boardwalk on a self-guided tour or take a historic glass bottom boat ride. Paddle out on a glass bottom kayak to get an underwater look at aquatic flora and fauna.

COMMEMORATIVE AIR FORCE EXHIBIT

1841 Airport Drive (off Hwy 21)
512-396-1943 | CentexWing.com

Located in a 1943 vintage wooden hangar, the CenTex Wing preserves a collection of combat aircraft flown by Allies during World War II and a display dedicated to the Doolittle Raiders. These historical aircraft are still flown by the Yellow Rose Squadron at various air shows.

MERMAIDS AND MURALS

Various locations | 512-393-5930

The best part about San Marcos' vibrant, colorful, and quirky nature is the mermaid statues and murals scattered around town. Start in the downtown square for the most concentrated area of public art. From small paintings to wall-sized murals to larger than-life-sized mermaids sculptures, downtown San Marcos offers visitors color around every corner.
